Attached are completion photos. Now the new development behind us is visible. We cut the dead trees and left few good quality ones that are not recommended to remove. There was more trash and work than anticipated. We agreed for $4000, then additional $500 for trash removal as we found some old tires and other debris. Then I brought another company to do some other clearing for $1600. So total is $6100. I have paid them directly so you can send to my GEI x85 please.

I'm sorry price is over but it's not always easy to know if more work is needed once they get into it.

Best price is $4,000. Please confirm its okay to spend this amount. As I mentioned its not mandatory but I feel will look significantly better with the new development surrounding us.

AA,

Here is the photos I was describing. One overview picture shows all the new development around us and our land has high grass & trees. I circled our land in red. I also took photo from in front of our land so you can see how it looks now. I'm getting prices now to see the best deal. I will let you know inshAllah
